scribers in this county is free; to any part of the United States purside of this county, five cents per quarter, or twen y a nie per year, payable in advance at the office where the paper is received. Transient copies can be sent in packages of three or less for two cents. TERMS OF ADVERTISING -For one square (12 lines is size type; three insertions, or less, $1.25. Each addinamal in tion, we cents a square. Yearly contracts made at the rate of $ a square for any part of a column. Business Cards $1 a line per year. Liberations, Estrays, Notices to Legislasture, $1.25 each in advance. Oblinarice six cents a lury. SPECIAL TO SUBSCRIBERS. Each subscriber will Is of a first family.

And on his occupation in connection with his address the date to which he has part. When a new payment is made this date and be a toward to correspond—and if the change to not made correctly on the first or second paper from the time of payment, we wish to be notified connectiately.

SPECIAL TO SI BECRIBERS.—Each subscriber will Is of a first family. His and he could whip any three this date and be a toward paper from the time of payment, we wish to be notified connectiately.

Chaps you see. 13" As our papers are new all directed by machinery. He—He—He—He seeannot deliver them at this other, or at any other place except at the post office address of the subscriber. It is uselies for subscribers to order the address of their paper changed unless they give the post office to their paper changed unless they give the post office to In fact, very free,

Papers and Cards kept constantly or hand.

ST. JOHNSBURY BUSINESS DIRECTORY. ROSS & BURBANK.

ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW, AND SOLICITORS AND MASTERS IN CHANCERY, ST. JOHNSBURY, VT. will attend to legal matters in Orange, Orleans, Essex | And help Lee and the formation and give especial attention to the To fight for slaveree—

Jan 1, 1965. J. D. GOULD. Acoust for GREAT WESTERN & LAKE SHORE R. R. Agricultural Warehouse-R. R. Street. tApr66 1. D. KILBOURNE, D. D. S.

DENTAL SURGEON.
Onice. - Corner Main and Central streets. A. J. WILLARD, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. SOLDIERS' BACK PAY, BOUNTIES AND PENSIONS JOHN BACON, 2d & CO.

DEALERS IN HIDES, LEATHER AND OIL. DR. J. L. PERKINS, DENTIST. Office, Corner of Main Street and Eastern Avenue.

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. office opposite J. C. Benghan's Drug Store. R. B. BLACKSTONE'S HAIR DRESSING SALOON. First door to the right, up stairs, Usion Block.

EMILY A. VARNEY, M. D.

NEWELL & BROOKS, PHYSICIANS & SURGEONS OFFICE OVER HOWARD'S BOOKSTORE. Dr N's residence, Main St, opposite North Church. Dr B's residence, Central St, id house from Summer St

J. NUTT, FILE MANUFACTURER. STEAM MILLS Cut their-hearts out-d'ye see? Miss E. McDOUGALL.

DEALES IN MILLINERY AND DRY GOODS Opposite Caledonian Office. F. B. GAGE, ARTIST, AT ST. JOHNSBURY PORTRAIT GALLERY. retypes, Melainotypes, and the size Photograph Better and encaper than elsewhere.

GEO. S. SHAW, INSURANCE AGENT. Office over E. Jewerr's Store. C. C. CHILDS.

DEALER IN WATCHES, JEWELRY, SILVER AND Small end of "Chivalry!" PLATED WARE, SPECTACLES, BOOKS, STATIONERY, FANCY Goods, Toys, &c.
Repairing and engraving done with elegance and prompt Opposite old Post Office, Main street.

WM. H. HORTON, MERCHANT TAILOR: and dealer in Gent's Fur

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Resilience and Office, corner of Central and Spring Sts. PASSUMPSIC LODGE, No. 27, F. A. M. MASONIC HALL-BINGHAM'S BLOCK. Stated meeting, Sept. 28. Called meeting Oct. 5. (Jan65y1) F. J. DALTON, Secty.

OLIVER T. BROWN, CLAIM AGENT. ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW.

HOUGHTON & HUNTER, HOMEPATHICIANS. St. Johnsbury, Vt.

J. F. LADUCER, Agent, Manufacturer of HARNESSES OF ALL KINDS,

Opposite Passumpsic House, - - - Railroad Street Miscelianeous Cards.

C. S. HADLEY, Licensed Auctioneer, WEST CONCORD, VT. D. MORSE, Licensed Auctioneer, ISLAND POND, VT.

P. B. LAIRD, and all sinds of granite wors,
W. DANVILLE, - - - - VT.

HIRAM A. CUTTING, GOVERNMENT CLAIM AND INSURANCE AGENT. Lunenburg. - - Verment.

WILLIAM W. GROUT, CLAIM AGENT. Will attend Courts in Orieans and Caledonia Counties. BARTLETT & BELDEN, ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS AT LAW. McINDOES FALLS, VT.

COUNSELLORS AT LAW, SOLICITORS IN CHANCERY, Procure Pensions, Bountles and Back Pay due decease BARNEY, SPENCER & WEST,

GEO, C. & GEO, W. CAHOON,

Successors to Geo. A. Simmons, wholesale dealers in KEROSENE, SPERM, LARD AND WHALE OILS. WAX AND SPERM CANDLES. 201 State, and 21 Commerce Street Boston. BARNEY, H. F. SPENCER, W. C. M. S. BURR & CO.,

Wholesale and retail dealers in PROPRIETARY MEDICINES, DRUCS, HAIR PREI 26 Tremont Street, next door to the Museum Entrance. EDW'D P. KEYES, COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

United States Internal Revenue Taxes. authorizing an Internal Revenue, are now due Caledonia County. Huriburt's Hotel, Waterford, Friday, Sert. 8.

Darling's Hotel, Lyndon, Monday, Sept. 11. Ruggles' Hotel, Lyndon Center, Tuesday, Sept Webb's Hotel, East Burke, Wednesday, Sep 13. Trull's Hotel, West Burke, Thursday, Sept. 14. Sutton Corner, Friday, Sept. 15

Miles' Hotel, Wheelock, Saturday v M. Sep. 16. Smith's Hotel, Danville, Monday, Sept 18. East Hardwick, Tuesday, Sept. 19, from 9 A. M. uth Hardwick, from I to 4 P M., same day. cacham Corner, Wednesday, Sept. 20 Ford's Hotel, Barnet, Thursday, Sept. 21.

Coossuck House, Wells River, Friday, Sept 22 Monthly returns, due and unpaid, will be reecived at the above times and places. Taxes can be remitted by other persons, or by mail, for which receipts and licenses will be re-

CHARLES S. DANA. Collector 2d District of Vermont.

St. Johnsbury, Aug. 12, 1865.

Aledonian.

ST. JOHNSBURY, VT., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1865.

WHOLE NUMBER 1466 with his employes for the future."

A Short Historee.

(Pardon its frequency.) Would rule land and sea. Except the darkee, Or, failing in that idee Would in last ditch (quoting Annie Laurie) Lay him down, and de-e! By and by, he,

Would make the "nig" free. Provided he Would shoulder a fusee Vermont and New Hampshire. Will also attend justice tras in this town and other towns in the County.

JUSTICIAN RUSS.

Which he ("nigo") couldn't "see."

Paca timepo, Grant he Used up Lee; When D. Concluded to flee With his specie. Twas foot against chivalry-Or horse against mule, or ass, may be. Of the three. It's easy to see

Which would be winner. Down on the Ocmulgee They caught the old sinner. He was caught in petti-How do you suppose? Up a tree? Why no, in woman's clothes! He! He!! He!!

J. D., In this extremity. Flourished his bowie Tremendously; And Mrs. D.,

With "nothing to wear," you see-(Aforesaid D.) Had on her hoops and she-Told the regiment "to be Careful how they provoked the 'President,' or he In his fury Might hurt somebody"-Finally, He and she.

Or, rather, she and he, Or she or he. (The matter is mixed slightly, As to which wears the bree-,) Whichever it may be; Bowed the knee To grim necessity And the Fourth Michigan Cavalry, And said "Peccari!" Dear me! Is this the wee Fiddle-de-dee!

-Boston Herald.

nington.

From the Boston Post. in Canada terminated, his next movement was to gather together what toryism there lerv uv the House. A member from Nov of importance was to get possession of the was in Vermont. History tells us how York wuz interdoosen a bill appropriating then obscure town of Bennington, lying in he was deceived. Her star has never set a sum ay money for the purpose my ercetthe "New Hampshire Grants," among ceneath the constellation of states, and in a monument to the memry my the I' the Green Mountains; and at that time unflinching as she has been now, she was ion sojiers who fell at Gettysburg. made the depot of large quantities of cat- then in that hour of trial. Success of the sooner hed the fanatic red the title uv the tle, provisions and other necessaries for British at Bennington might have been the bill, than Ginrals McGongum and Swashthe use of the American army. For the straw that would have broken the camel's er, and Kernel Pelter, my Georgia, walked purpose of capturing these, as well as to back. But it was not merely for this that over to his seet, and with their cames beet intimidate the people in that quarter, he we celebrate to-day. The revolution has him over the hed, twenty or fifteen mindetached a party of Hessians, with a few another aspect. It was the ideas and its. He wuz carried out fer ded. Indians, to the number of about fifteen principles involved therein. The speaker | Gineral McGougum claimed the floor. hundred, and gave the command to Col. next dwelt upon the subject of national "Mr. Specker," sed he, "I'm bilin !-Baum, a German officer. If successful lite. The elements of a nation, he said, Indignashen is a heeven and tossen my here, he intended to march on to Boston, are to be found in its ideas—those ideas shivelrus sole in a most tremenjusly tumuland give out word that the main body of which shoot balls a thousand years in ad- chus stile. I am, Mr. Specker, a cityzen the British army was in motion for the vance of an army. He then dwelt upon uv this gellorus Republic. I stand here same purpose, and that by this irresistible the elements of our nationality, and show- 2 day, reconstructed and consillyated-a lious Americans" to submission, or to ov- life to our institutions. Without a correct hey violated no rool or custom my this errun the whole country. How the con- organism, founded in truth and justice, House. I hev drawd my pay promptly-MANUFACTURER OF GRANITE MONUMENTS, ceited British officer was thwarted in his liberty is nothing. The doctrine of state I hev even wented so fur in the sperit my By Lettering done on grante equally as well as on hombastic orders and threats were far from speaker remarking that it was an assertion that pay in greenbax, instid uv demandin cite. The adjoining country was imme- of it chose to do so. There was not a bears the portrait uv that fiendish ape. representing the apparent difficulty of ex- did not have a state, but they knew they my constituoency wuz walloped, without beautiful and amiable young lady between he arrived he was met at the depot and flity-three; his diet being mick, classe, ecuting his orders with the force under his had a country. And a nationality is not rebuke! Never! He has bin rebuked— sixteen and twenty-four years of age to escorted to Gen. Fisk's headquarters by a whey, small beer and country. command. In consequence of this infor- a mere human institution. The union of let him heed the warnin." mation a party of Waldeckers were sent, hearts and the union of hands may be Several Ablishn members riz, but the the 2d New Hampshire regiment, with a woe-begone countenances indicated the lived to be one hundred and forty, was but before they reached the camp of his separated, but our lakes and rivers cannot Dimocrisy waz firm, and weodent let em view to matrimony. Some waggish ac- deep disgust and horror which swelled tea, bread and butter, and baked applies. This victory of the Green Mountain boys can traditions be dissolved, nor can new follows:

action, was the first settlement in the then then referred to the noble deeds the people in these halls, that when ever referred to. forthwith, written in the most delicate fe- and I can probably inform you. territory of Vermont, which was as re- had accomplished in vindicating the gov- it shell be termed "misunderstandins." Notice is hereby given that the annual Taxes cent as 1761. This was made by the ernment in the late struggle. The fierce That the flags, cannon and sich like ton," whose name appeared at the close, Gen.—Abernethy. Yes, I remember. the 2d Collection District of Vermont, upon possession of the tracts known as the fight may be over, but there never was a trophies, found by the Federal army in expressed the most tender love and symbecomes, Licenses, Carriages, Billiard Tables, of the traces known as the light may be over, but there never was a tropines, found by the Federal army in expressed the most tender live and symbols of the conclusion that milk is healthy, as watches, Musical Instruments, Plate, &c., under New Hampshire Grants," having a rotten for the conclusion that milk is healthy, as the provisions of the various acts of Congress, bust and hardy set of men, gathered in brains were so much needed as now. The to-wunst destroydd. and payable, and that I or my deputies will attend, from the provinces of New Hampshire, questions of adjustment and reconstruction That penshuns be pade to the misun-manner. "Rosalia" replied, declaring you. at the following places, to receive the same, viz: Massachusetts, Connecticut and New required the greatest talent of the nation. derstandinists from both sekshuns, for ser- that life would be insupportable unless she A.—Citizens of Giles county! Neigh- The only inference that can be safely York, and who are known and generally Ignorance, he said, next to the want of vises rendered the Guvernment. Collector's Office, St. Johnsbury House, St. denominated "Green Mountain Boys"- moral intelligence, was the greatest bane That the various fields on 12 which eventually repose in the embraces of the be! Johnsbury, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 4, 5, 6 and 7. Thursday, Sept. 4, 5 intrepidity they won an honorable name, national right, and educated mind is the ed at the expense of the Guvernment. is heroic. They were in fact the terror of ed by hoping the people would cease all abount uv prison life or sich. Folsom's Hotel, Sheffield, Saturday, from 9 A. (or Green Mountain Boys) were the most tion of independence.

> THE VICTOR OF BENNINGTON. Gen. Stark, the hero of Bennington, in of significance and it seemed as though he Goujum and Fernandy Wood rusht int? wealth, and that when the war was over himself any longer, he exclaimed, 'Lor,' The press agent at Washington telehis early youth had been accustomed to stood in the presence of those men who eech uthers arms, and went down eech they would resign every care, and nothing bless my soul, general, them ain't my graphs that the president and the cabinet the alarm of war. His birth-place was shed their blood on the surrounding hill- uthers bax, while Kernel Pelter waved a should disturb their unalloyed bliss. neighbors: them's my niggers. 'You are a unit on the subject of the record allon the borders of New Hampshire, which sides and built their camp-fires where fires flag over em, forming a picter trooly techin. "The hear of the dreamer beat high in his breast," are mistaken, Mr. A., replied the gen- zation of the lately resembles. But had long been subject to incursions of the can never be extinguished. He paid an "Thank hevin," I exclaimed, ez I awoke and without a moment's delay he arrayed eral, there are no such persons in Ten- that they don't quite agree in regard to the savages. When a child he was captured by eloquent tribute to the patriotism of the frum this refreshin sleep, "Brooks is ded, himself in his best: "each particular nessee now as "your niggers." Joseph trial of Jeff Davis. The president wants them. It was eighty-seven years ago that Green Mountain Boys.

a band of savages traversed an unbroken Gen. Hooker was introduced amid tu- marchin on. So long ez we hey a south- his photograph was taken and dispatched nessee, and one of them claims even a high treason, and some of the catinet wilderness for hundreds of miles to cap- multuous cheering. He felt embarrassed ern dimocrisy to demand, and a Northern to the beautiful heiress in New Hamp- nearer relation to you; and the striking want to have him tried before a malliance. ture a few white men, among them the on being called on make a speech. He dimocrat to give, all will be well. Bless shire. His name, his parentage, and resemblance he bears to you gives counter commission upon other charges. future hero of Bennington, who learned paid a high compliment to the Vermont the Lord!" 'ENTLEMEN'S FASHIONABLE from them their arts of war. He was soldiers, who, he said, had not only done and distinguish himself as a soldier. On Foster, and other gentlemen. Burgoyne's approach to the state of Ver- At the conclusion of the exercises at he immortalized his name by his signal military.

The celebration of the battle of Ben- of St. Albans. nington was gotten up under the auspices The festivities of the day closed with The morning was ushered in by the boom- present. ing of cannon and the ringing of bells .-At 11 o'clock the procession, under the chief marshalship of Col. J. E. Pratt. aschief marshalship of Col. J. E. Pratt, assisted by aids Lt.-Col Eugene Cole and Lt. J. H. Cushman, formed on Main street, near the St. Anthony House, and moved through the principal streets to Morgan's grove, a delightful retreat, where est recreation I hev. I don't know the speakers and distinguished guests took whether these dreems is the sperit of proph their places upon a stage which had been esy, sugar coated with sleep, or whether erected for the purpose. The crowd as- they are sooperindoost by the reglar three-

Foster of Walden, and others. the day, who alluded to the circumstances | South Carliny wuz represented in the he swims about beneath the surface of the with one oar, or a bird with one wing, condition, he alluded to the main object give the South controle uv Congris. After Burgoyne's disastrous campaign the British general had in view, which In my dream I wuz scated in the Gal equent surrender of Burgoyne's army. of the Revolution and of the late war can prevale, hentz4th and forever.

JCLOTHING—Coats. Pants and Vests—just soon released and fought the savage captheir duty in the field but at the ballot-wilderness from the French, and pass it | Brief speeches were also made by Lt .- | under British power; and again we see Gov. Dillingham, Gen. Truman Seymour, him leading a regiment to the field in 1775, Maj. Gen. Stannard, Gen. Phelps, Gen.

mont, and at the head of the raw militia, the grove, there was a dress parade of the success at Bennington in one of the dark- At 5 P. M. a meeting of the Historical est hours of the war-and it is on this Society took place, at which interesting account, together with all the surrounding historical papers were read, among them circumstances, that the people of Benning- a paper on the battle of Gettysburg, by ton to-day have met in their strength and G. G. Benedict, Esq., of Burlington, who numbers, to celebrate in a fitting manner was on the staff of Gen. Stannard in that comes washing up the sandy slope. But dollar greenback, they would drink to the the noble deeds of the patriotic defenders fight. Also a "Serio-Comic History of June Trainings," by L. L. Dutcher, Esq.,

of the Vermont Historical Society, of display of fireworks. A grand military which ex-Governor Hiland Hall is presi- ball took place at Library Hall in the evedent. All the preparations were on a ning, at which the elite of Bennington large and liberal scale, the details of which and many notable military gentlemen were excellently carried out. The day were present. Mrs. Jenkins was there dawned clear and warm, though the fresh and had much to say about the elegant breezes that ever play about these Ver- toilettes. Some of the fair ladies of New mont hills swept lovingly over the crowd. York, Troy, Saratoga and Boston were

[From the Cincinnati Commercial.] Satar's Rest. [which is in the Stait

Dreems is becomin the most commonsembled here numbered from fifteen to quarters up a pound up tripe I cat at

J. G. Smith, ex-Governors Hall and time, and wuz set ahead about nine Fletcher, Lt.-Gov. Dillingham, Gen. months, which time brings forth events in Hooker, Gen. Truman Seymour, Gen. pollytiks as wel ez in other things too te-Geo. J. Stannard of St. Albans, Gen. J. jus to menshun.

Methot the South hed bin consillyatid as they deepen, and meets the first breaking and reconstructid, and hed cum back into the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
Methot the South hed bin consillyatid as they deepen, and meets the first breaking this imperfect state he can keep the straight the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sisters giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sistery giner
The vast assemblage was called to order the sisterhood us states, as sistery giner
The

which had brought them together, and af- house by Ginral Swasher, and all the ter reviewing the details of the battle of Rhetts, et serry, and Missippy by a dozen Bennington he introduced to the audience or 2 Kernels and Ginrals, for that stait Rev. E. H. Chapin of New York, orator sent none to Congress ceptin its heroes,of the day. After some preliminary re- Geffson Davis was a candidait, but hevin marks Mr. Chapin said that the battle of sed, in his zeel for repudiashen, that he August 16, 1777, maintains its place in wuz fer repudiatin all debts, his constituethe heroism of our country. It was the ency wuz afraid that he mite incloud the Gettysburg of the Revolution, and was an Confedrit war debt, so they defected him, instance of the plans of Providence. Af- and elected Ginral M. Goujum, who held ter reviewing in an eloquent manner the that the Fedral war debt wuz unconstoogreat effect this battle had on the destinics shael, and must be repudiated, while the of the country, at a time when the patri- Confedracy's ought to be paid ez a consil-Anniversary of the Battle of Ben- ots of the country were discouraged and itory measure. The ginooine Dimocrisy the country itself was in a disorganized uv the North hed elected euriff members to power they intended to bring the "rebel- ed what was necessary to give sustaining loyal man. They took the oath, and sence purposes, the historian tells us. These sovereignty was next alluded to, the fergivenis and christian charity, ez to take spreading the panic they intended to in- of the right to kill the body if any portion gold, notwithstandin every wun uv em diately in motion and all seemed animated man, he said, who honestly believed in the that thirster after gore, that destroyer my with a resolution to defend the rights of doctrine of secession. The late war had habis corpusis and constooshnel rites, our ing good story; nature and the peaceful possession of life taught us that we must continually com- lamentid President. After makin these A young soldier belonging to a New old gentleman he was astonished beyond dred and fortieth year. and property. When Baum had arrived but this heresy. We want a race of Amer- sacrificis shell sit here camly and allow a Hampshire regiment, while far away from measure, and doubtless, would not have Kentigera, who never tasted spirits or within a few miles of Bennington, ap- icans, instead of state men. In our nation- nigger-steelin Yankee to insult the South the fair damsels of his native state, deigned to respond to it had not a guard wine, and worked hard all his ide, reachpearances gave him reason to apprehend ality is imbedded all the glories of the with allosions to Gettysburg, and sich ?— thought it would be a relief to his loneli- been present to enforce it. His neighbors, ed a hundred and eighty-five years. Junthat he was not sufficiently strong to make past and hope of the future. It is the Never! Shela Noo York missengenny-ness it he could persuade some one of of course, were greatly excited. The ven-kins, a poor Yorkshire fisherman, who an attack on that place; so he fell back magic of our nationality that causes our genashumist, in this ere hall perpose 2 ap- them to hold communication with him by erable old Abernethy arrested and ordered lived on the coarsest diet, was one hourto a post on the branch of the Hoosac flag to be respected all over the world. propriate the treasure uv our common letter. So he placed an advertisement in to report forthwith at Nashville! Dis- dred and sixty-nine years old when he river, and sent a messenger to his superior, The men who fought August 16, 1777, country to commemorate a field, on which the New Hampshire papers, inviting some patches were sent to the city, and when died. Old Parr lived to a hambred and friends, a body of militia, commanded by be fenced in; they must be common prop- speek. The southern members wuz a go- quaintances of the young soldier in this their chivalrous bosoms. Arrived at head-Gen. Stark, had pressed forward, attack- erty and free, and remain as members of in to withdraw in a body, wen Fernandy city who saw the advertisement and knew quarters: ed, routed, and totally defeated Col. Baum. this arterial permanence forever. Neither wood rose and perposed a compermise, ez its origin, resolved to gratify his desire for Abernethy-Is this Gen Fisk?

fame solely from the Mexikin war.

Bathing.

reaches his middle. Then he gathers never did run smooth." slow handfuls and sprinkles his head: wets his shoulders; shivers; and goes out another yard. Perhaps he retreats at this juncture, as he sees a huge roll of surf breaking down upon him; but if he does he returns eventually, and the breaker turns his back to it; it knocks him off his consideration of our fair readers: feet and souses him unexpectedly; he comes forth rubbing his eyes and spouting crimes committed by married men. Facts like a whale, and protesting that 'that was a-phoo! phoo!-a regular-phoo!- tenance. But it may be said with truth ah, there's another-taking him unawares and sousing him again, filling his nostrils and his throat and half choking him to death. How anybody with the brains of ed. Whatever faults Voltaire may have a gnat could consent to be a paddler, I had, he certainly showed himself a man on the platform were the following: Gov. Last nite I dreemed that I hed brigd am at a loss to conceive. But it takes all ried men you have the form of the pear, and that sorts of people to make a world.

stepped back a rod or two from the water's virtuous and more wise." An unmarried as to the terrible fire blight we have no edge, and with this start he runs swiftly water, and then emerges, shaking his hair can keep the straight course. In nine aside, empties his lungs with one strong, cases out of ten where married men be steady breath opens his eyes, and commences in carnest the rollicking revel for crimes against the peace of the comwhich he has engaged .- Novices look on munity, the foundation of these acts was with a certain degree of wonder at such a laid while in a single state, or where the did: but now I am of the brotherhood, able match. Marriage changes the whole champagne without intexicating like it. though from the difference in their labors But supposing that glow don't come r and the greater exposure to temptation on said a Baltimore gentleman to me the the part of man, we have no doubt but other day-an invalid, and therefore a man reaps a greater advantage from the show of excuse for being a paddler. It restraining influences of marriage than is not a suppositious case: the glow sure- woman does. But as our Heavenly Fatha little, if you are able to endure that for either to be alone." life-giving exercise: start with every muscle in play, and run with all your might and main: shut your eyes, hold your taph at once. You are a subject for a decent interment in a gravevard." Perils of Love Making by Mail.

a female admirer to the full extent of their | Gen F.-Yes, sir. tle amusement for themselves. A letter brought here for ! male hand, in which "Rosalia Temple- A .- My name is Abernethy, sir.

Paster uv the Church of the Noo Dis- accompanied his photograph, and he beg- ed his face with his hands, bowing his him in regard to the manner and manages ged that in return he might be blessed with head for some time. At length he said: ment of Davis' trial.

a sight of a likeness of his fair correspondent. The mischievous wags had no The Long Branch (N. J.) correspond-difficulty in inducing a young miss of cerning these anoyances are constantly goent of the New York Times thus graph- seventeen to represent the beautiful "Ros- ing the rounds of the press, and even find ically describes the two classes of bathers alia," and the photograph was sent. Every- annittance to books. We propose to who may be found at every sea-side re- thing must have an end, and at last in correct a few of the more important. answer to the entreaties of "Fredrick." "There are two kinds of bathers in this Rosalia consented to disclose her real name world—the plungers and the paddlers, and history. The names of his old school- first part of the season is favorable for the The latter come to the water's edge, and mates who were concerned in the plot curculio's operations, the first set of eggs puts a toe in. 'Ugh, how cold!' he ejacu were given in detail, and "Frederick" will be laid by the time the plums are half lates; and runs backward from a wave that was told that if he would send on a ten grown, and early fruit will escape with he must go in; he knows he must; he has health of his prospective bride, his gentle, his bathing dress on; and besides, he beautiful and beloved "Rosalia." Im- plums, and the first laving is often so prowants to. The fascination is irresistible, agination may conceive, but words cannot tracted as to leave no appreciable interval while he shudders over it. So he stoops paint the mortification of a young soldier between it and the second. down and gets hold of the protective rope; of the Potomac, as he perused the last and out he goes, slowly, hesitatingly, with epistle from his correspondent and realized ed by any kind of attack through the sighs and 'Oh, als,' enough to set up a the truth of the declaration of the immor- round holes which it makes in the bark first class lover; and at last the water tal bard-that "the course of true love These holes are made by the mature beetle

> An Argument in Favor of Mat- The caterpillars cannot be overcome by rimony.

We never remember, to have seen the comes again; he doubles himself up and here chosen. We present it for the sage are guided by acute instincts.

No one will contend that there are no would look such an assertion out of counthat there are very few crimes committed by married men compared with the number committed by those who are unmarri-ried men you have the fewer crimes there will be. Marriage renders a man more man is but half of a perfect being, and certainty as yet.

Justice For The Freedmen.

breath, and 'go under as if you intended to tant commissioner of the freedmen's bu- yet they are envisd go to China straight: swim about till you rean, administers justice to the freedmen While great enters never live to an old feel the necessity for breathing, and then in Tennessee, as told by the Nashville corcome to the surface and breath a slow, respondent of the Cincinnati Gazette: out some "symptom," some feelings suffi-

open a correspondence with "Frederick" of respectable body of old citizens, whose favorite food of Henry Francisco, who contributed in no small degree to the sub- ones be put in their places. The battles That harmony and good feelin shood power, and secure at the same time a lit- A .- I should like to know what I am Bennington, the scene of this heroic never be effaced from our history. He The word "War" shel never be voosed was dispatched to him by one of the wags Gen. - Very well; give me your name, erjoyed, and responded in the most ardent oath to a very grave complaint against well as baked apples and bacon. These beloved correspondent. In the most pass general, as he took the document from a lage. which to this day is suggestive of all that basis of intelligent suffrage. He conclud- That no book be publisht givin any sionate manner she entreated him not to pigeon hole and began: Joseph and Paul let her "burst in ignorance" of his real Abernethy, in the county of Giles, in the ing any one thing that an old man did and Gen. Burgoyne, who, in a letter to the strife and bickerings and be true to the That punkin orators in this House, name and history. She also begged he state of Tennessee, being duly sworn, do emit all the others, but by doing all that British government, said that the "Grants" grand principles enunciated in the declara- draw their halloosions to our military would send her his photograph, that she testify, etc. etc. As the reading proceed- he did, that is, work steadily as well as might feast her eyes upon the features of ed, the old gentleman's eyes fairly bulged eat mainly a particular dish. - Hall's Jouractive and rebellious men on the continent. Gov. Smith being called on, said the The compermise wuz uv coarse adopt- her dearest "Frederick" She assured out, and he looked the very picture of neith of Health. events which we celebrate to-day were full id. Ez the vote wuz annonst, Ginril Me- him that her father had ample stores of amazement. At length, unable to re-train but his sperit still lives-his sole is a hair" was made smooth and sleek, and and Paul Abernethy are citizens of Ten- to have him tried before a civil court for every important incident in his history nance to the claim. This home thrust Justice Chase will soon arrive at Washing-Petroleum V. Nashy, were faithfully recorded in a letter which cut the old man to the heart, and he cover- ton and the president will consult with

Well, general, what are you going to do about it? I am going to do justice,' he replied. 'Do you owe these men the amount they claim? If you do, you must pay it.' The old gentleman came down at once, acknowledged the debt, and promised to call and settle it the next day The next day he came, paid the dept in full, and entered into a written contract

Errors About Insects.

Several very erroneous statements con-

Plums are not safe from the curculio "as soon as the stone is formed." If the but little further injury. But a second set of eggs will be ready for the later

The apple borer cannot be exterminatin escaping from the tree after the grub has finished his work.

destroying their webs while they are foraging abroad. Neither are they always to be found at home until 9 o'clock A. M .field canvassed from the point of view Their habits vary with the weather, and Honey bees are not injurious to fruit. Even wasps and hornets prefer that which has begun to decay, and rarely attack a sound spot.

Neither potato rot, pear blight or black knot are caused by any insect whatever-As to plums and cherries, injury from any cause gives an occasion for rot. All these diseases, except pear blight, are fully ascertained to be, or be caused by, fungi .which cracks the virgalien, the fungi : but

When you see a bird dive at a cherry. When you see a bird dive at a cherry, are down the sands, leaps high in the waters it requires the other half to make things and then you see a hole in the cherry, are vanishing from sight. For some seconds path of rectitude, any more than a boat such holes, and a bird who picks them out is doing you good service.-Journal

Great Eaters.

Great enters never live long. A voracious appetite, so far from being a sign of bather as this; there was a time when I wife is, as is sometime the case, an unsuit- health, is a certain indication of disease. Some dyspepties are always hangry: feel They wonder that he does not strangle : current of a man's feelings, and gives him best when they are easing, but as soon as they wonder how he can come forth so a centre for his thoughts, his affections, they have eaten they endure torments so calmly, and breathe that long breath so the example and the interests of his 'bet- distressing in their nature as to make steadily: they wonder it he is not 'half a ter half " keep him from erratic courses, their unhappy victims wish for death. fish, anyhow. But he knows that no one and from falling into a thousand tempta- The appetite of health is that which inderives truest benefit from bathing, except tions to which he would otherwise be exhis bathing be like this. The rigorous posed. Therefore, the friend to marriage comes, and which when satisfied leaves no plunge, proceded by a short run, is suc- is the friend to society and to his country. unplensant reminders. Multitudes menceeded by an instant glow that pervades And we have no doubt but a similar effect sure their health by the amount they can the whole system, and exhibitantes like is produced by marriage on the woman; eat: and of any ten persons, nine are gratified at an increase of weight, no if mere bulk were an index of beautic visca in reality, any excess of fatness is, in proportion, decisive proof of existing disease, showing that the absorbents of the system are too weak to discharge their ly comes, if you follow the directions on er said, at a very early period in the ex-duty; and the tendence to fastness, to he label.' Expand your chest—pound it istence of human beings: "It is not good obesity, increases until existence is a burden, and sudden death close the history. Particular inquiry will almost invariably elicit the fact that fat persons, however This is the way that Gen. Fiske, assis. rubicund and jolly, are never well, and steady, restrained breath, exhausting and "An old and highly respected citizen of ciently disagreeable to attract the mind's refilling your lungs to their utmost capac- Giles county, named Abernethy-a good attention unpleasantly, small caters, those ity. There, open your eyes: and if you Methodist, by the way-refused to pay who cat regularly of plain food, usually do not feel the promised glow, please to his colored laborers the wages he had have no "space flesh," are way and cugo and give your directions for your epi- agreed to pay them, and, as a last resort, during, and live to an active oid ago. Hetwo of the most intelligent of his employes markable exemplifications of these statecame into the freedmen's court, made oath, ments are found in the lives of the cento the contract and to the fact of non-pay- tenarians of a past age. Galen, one of ment, and an order was accordingly issued the most distinguished physicians among The Manchester Mirror tells the follow- to bring the venerable patriarch into court the ancients, fived very spentiagly after the to answer. When the order reached the age of twenty-eight, and died in his hun-who died aged 117. lived chiefly on milk, and even that in small quantity; his son Michael, by similar means, fixed to be a handred and three years years old. Father Cull, a Methodist clergyman, died last year at the age of one hundred and five, the main diet of his life having been salted swine's flesh (bacon) and bread made of Indian meal. From these statements conclusions do not legitimately followcould cherish the hope that she might bors of mine! Good heavens, who can it drawn is from the only fact running through all these cases-that plain food

We must not expect to live long by do-